

Project Achievement Awards -- Standards Rubric

Standard	Clearly Meets Standard (3 points)	Somewhat Meets Standard (2 points)	Clearly Does Not Meet Standard (0 points)	Score
Annual Goals	Youth has set at least one goal in the project and taken steps to meet the goal.	Youth has set at least one goal in the project but cannot identify steps to meet that goal.	Youth has not yet set goal in the project.
Progress in Project	Youth can identify and share at least two ways in which he or she has made progress in this project during the current year.	Youth can identify and share at least one way in which he or she has made progress in this project during the current year.	Youth cannot share any progress in project this year.
Education in Project (examples: self-study, project meetings, events, interviews, etc)	Youth has sought out more than one educational opportunity that enhanced his or her project experience this year.	Youth has participated in an educational event that has enhanced his or her project experience this year.	Youth has not yet participated in any educational opportunities related to his or her project work this year.
Youth Leadership in Project	Youth has shared his or her expertise in a variety of leadership opportunities.	Youth has shared his or her expertise in at least one leadership opportunity.	Youth has not yet shared his or her expertise in the project.
9 - 12 points are needed to achieve the Project Achievement Award.				TOTAL: